

Qin Jun, male, Ph.D. in art, Professor of Jiangnan University, Doctoral Supervisor. Wuxi City and Jiangnan University jointly build a humanities and social science base, director of "Wuxi ancient canal cultural and creative center". Director of China Animation society; director of micro film professional committee of China Academy of film and television; Secretary General of animation and digital media art professional teaching steering committee of Jiangsu University; director of Jiangsu Media Art Research Association; director of Jiangsu Association of Arts and crafts designers branch; deputy director of Jiangsu Digital Art Design Expert Committee. The final judge of the Sixth National Digital Art Design Competition organized by China electronic video industry association of the Ministry of industry and information technology and the expert committee of digital art design of China; and the judge of Xiamen International Animation Festival Golden Dolphin animation competition.

Research field and direction: mainly engaged in the teaching and research of digital media art design, animation art design, interactive art design and digital entertainment content design related to cultural creativity and digital entertainment.

In recent years, more than 60 academic papers have been published in national authoritative and core journals. Published 16