

Department:	Faculty of Humanities and Arts
Course Name	Visual Storytelling
Hours per week	3
Number of Credits	3
Course Description	This course introduces students to visual narratives of various medium types and genres after the invention of photography, including: photographs, movies, documentaries and even animation in the digital age. During this course, students will understand a brief history of visual storytelling, meaning of images, narrative perspectives and spectatorships, etc.